

Vidya is an entrepreneur, who has demonstrated inclusive leadership in the way she manages her businesses.

VIDYASREE SUBRAMANIAM M.COM.,

Entrepreneur / Speaker / Life Coach / Outward Mindset Facilitator

For the past 20 years, as a sought after speaker/parenting coach, she has supported numerous families and couples sharing her experiences in nurturing children and parenting and helping them with their parenting.

She has also been supporting youth develop key life skills as they prepare to enter the workforce.

As a person, Vidya exudes warmth and the highest level of hospitality resulting in family, relatives, friends and people she interacts with forming deep bonds and inevitably long lasting relationships.

She embodies a way of working and living that every person can benefit from.

As an Outward Mindset facilitator, Vidya now leverages on the unique Arbinger approach to share her passion for helping individuals, families, couples and entrepreneurs to further enrich their lives by inviting them to strengthen their underlying mindsets.

Arbinger is the world leader in mindset change. Through training, consulting, coaching, and implementation tools, Arbinger enables individuals, teams, and organizations to change from an the default self-focus of an inward mindset to the others-inclusive focus of an outward mindset. Arbinger provides strategies and behavioral reinforcements that sustain this change. The result is dramatic and sustained improvement in the key success indicators of our client organizations— in their levels of collaboration, employee engagement, accountability, revenue growth, market share, and profitability.

Arbinger
Institute